Shelter Web App Use Case Explanation

Slide 1:

First welcome display for user login

Slide 2:

User logs into the system using Facebook

Slide 3:

Main request home page user is directed to after login.

Slide 4:

What user sees if the underlined “Review” button is clicked for resolving request

Slide 5:

When the user scrolls down through the document, the user has option at bottom to accept (green check) or deny (the red x) the request

Slide 6:

Once the request is completed, user is directed to history page where the user can undo and choose a different selection for the request (say user presses “accept” but wants to change it to “deny” the user can with undo button), date of doggie date is shown and undo button goes away once doggie date passes

Slide 7:

What the user request menu looks like when there are no doggie requests out at the moment

A silhouette of a woman with long hair, wearing a dark top, sitting on the ground and holding a small dog. They are positioned in front of a vibrant orange and yellow sunset or sunrise sky. The foreground shows some dark, silhouetted plants.

Thank you for considering the adoption of a shelter animal! Before you decide to adopt a pet, please consider the time, effort and funds (estimated at $1000 or more annually for food, supplies, vaccination, and veterinary care) necessary to properly maintain an animal. Responsible pet ownership requires a commitment to provide care and companionship for the life of the animal. The decision to adopt a pet is an important one. In order to insure that you and your pet will be happy for years to come, we need to take time to discuss your and the animal's individual needs and personality traits. Please take a few moments to carefully read and complete this application.
